The first system of handwritten musical notation consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in a treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a time signature of 3/4. The lyrics "Et non est solum" are written under the first two measures, and "Tu - ra" is written under the next two measures. The piano accompaniment is written in a bass clef with a key signature of one flat and a time signature of 3/4. The melody in the vocal line starts with a quarter note, followed by a quarter note, and then a quarter note. The piano accompaniment features a simple harmonic accompaniment with a bass line and a treble line.

The second system of handwritten musical notation continues the vocal and piano parts. The vocal line continues with a quarter note, followed by a quarter note, and then a quarter note. The piano accompaniment continues with a simple harmonic accompaniment with a bass line and a treble line.

The third system of handwritten musical notation continues the vocal and piano parts. The vocal line continues with a quarter note, followed by a quarter note, and then a quarter note. The piano accompaniment continues with a simple harmonic accompaniment with a bass line and a treble line.

Two empty musical staves are located at the bottom of the page, consisting of two five-line staves without any notation.
